

TRIINSTITUTIONAL PHD PROGRAM

Computational Biology & Medicine

CBM MAJOR SPONSOR AGREEMENT Cornell University

I, _____, have agreed to serve as Major Sponsor for
_____, a graduate student in the CBM Program.

CBM Student Funding Structure

- Year 1: Stipends and tuition fees are funded through the Tri-I CBM Program.
- Year 2: Stipends and tuition fees are funded by the Institution (Cornell-Ithaca).
- Year 3+: Stipends and tuition fees, including health insurance are funded 100% by the Major Sponsor. Adjustments will be made if student receives a fellowship or is appointed on a T32.

I understand CBM's funding structure and acknowledge that I am responsible for 100% of the stipend, tuition fee (including health insurance) in Year 3 and beyond. I commit to provide funding for my student's stipend according to the schedule above, in addition to reasonable research expenses, throughout their duration of graduate study.

I understand that my student is required to adhere to all CBM rules and policies, including curriculum and committee requirements, as well as the rules and policies of the Cornell University Graduate School. I commit to mentoring my student and to supporting their overall career and professional development, including completing a face-to-face review of the student's Individual Development Plan at least annually.

Signature

Major Sponsor

Date

Please submit PDF or scanned copy via email to:

mah2036@med.cornell.edu

Margie H. Mendoza, CBM Program Coordinator